

Full Administrative Review

Applications defined as Full Administrative Review:

- Site Plan Review*
- Binding Site Plan*
- Short Subdivision*

* At any time during the review of an application staff may request additional information to be submitted to complete the review. If such a request is made the permit process clock stops until the additional information is submitted to and accepted as complete by city staff.